Bafumiki Mocheregwa, PhD School of Humanities-History University of Southern Mississippi 118 College Drive, Box #5047 Hattiesburg, MS 39406-0001

Email: Bafumiki.Mocheregwa@usm.edu Office Phone: (601) 266-5004 Dale Center Phone: (601) 266-5563

EDUCATION

PhD	History, University of Calgary
	Alberta, Canada	2021
MA	History, Trent University	2016
	Ontario, Canada
PGDE Post Graduate Diploma in Education		2013
	University of Botswana, Gaborone
ВА	History, English (Combined Major)	2012
	University of Botswana, Gaborone

TEACHING EXPERIENCE AND RESEARCH AGENDA

University of Southern Mississippi

August – December 2024

Assistant Professor of History, School of Humanities

HIS 736 – Modern War and Society with a focus on African Decolonization and the Cold War.

HIS 102 - World Civilizations, an undergraduate course covering topics from the 1500s to the modern age.

HIS 698 – MA Thesis supervision

University of Southern Mississippi

May -

University of Southern Mississippi August – December 2023 Assistant Professor of History, School of Humanities

HIS 101 – World Civilizations, and undergraduate course covering various topics from

University of Calgary, Alberta, Canada Sessional Instructor, Department of History

January – April 2020

HTST 397 Introduction to African History, an undergraduate course averaging 50 students per semester, covering the following topics: Bantu migrations, Islam in North and West Africa, African pre-colonial warfare and trade systems, European imperialism in Africa, types of colonial administrations, Africa in the World Wars

University of Calgary, Alberta, Canada Sessional Instructor, Department of History May - June 2019

HTST 307 Contemporary World, an undergraduate course averaging 70 students per semester, covering topics such as the enlightenment and its aftermath, the industrial revolution in Europe and America, the rise of European overseas conquest.

Research agenda includes the following;

Fi

__ "A Cold War Battlefield? Assessing the effects of Cold War proxy wars on Angolan, Mozambican and Ethiopian